

Student of the Week

Cameron

October 17-28th , 2011
(extended because of the October holiday)

Cameron modeled so many attributes of the AISL student profile:

I saw him playing nicely with Leon every single day. He was caring.

He was staying in the line and not cutting. He was principled.

Cameron behaved and followed the class rules. He was knowledgeable.

He raised up his hand to talk in class, he was a good communicator.

Cameron was quiet in the library. He was principled.

When we played games he played the game I wanted to play and he is my best friend. He was open-minded.

Way to go Cameron! We are so proud of you and all your good work in Grade One so far!
